

LIEUTENANT COLONEL MATTHEW TILLMAN

---

LTC Matthew Tillman is the 46th Professor of Military Science at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado. Tillman commissioned as a Medical Service Corps Officer in 2004 from the CSU Army ROTC programing after graduating with his B.S. in Administration. Following the AMEDD Officer Basic Course, LTC Tillman was assigned to the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) at Fort Campbell, KY where he served as a medical platoon leader for the 4-320 Field Artillery Battalion and then as the C Company Commander in the 801st Brigade Support Battalion. He deployed twice in that time; to Iraq in 2005 and Afghanistan in 2008.

LTC Tillman attended the Combined Logistics Captain's Career Course (CLC3) at Fort Lee, VA in 2010 where he was the Distinguished Honor Graduate. He then served at the National Training Center as the Brigade Support Medical Company (BSMC) senior trainer for 26 rotations. He was then selected, as a member of Project Warrior, to teach at the AMEDD Captain's Career Course at Fort Sam Houston, TX. LTC Tillman was selected to attend the Army-Baylor's Masters Program in Healthcare and Business Administration with Residency at Evan's Army Community Hospital in Fort Carson, CO. From Residency, he was selected to attend Command and General Staff Officer Course (CGSOC) at Fort Leavenworth, KS where he earned the Master Logistician Award for 2017.

Following CGSOC, LTC Tillman was assigned to the 56th Multifunctional Medical Battalion at Joint Base Lewis – McChord where he served as the Battalion Support Operations Officer and then Battalion Executive Officer. He concluded his time at JBLM as the 62nd Medical Brigade S3. During the end of his time at JBLM, he was responsible for the operational requirements associated with the Seattle COVID hospital, set up in the Century Link Event Center in downtown Seattle.

In August of 2020, Tillman began as the PMS at CSU where he is scheduled to serve until Summer of 2024. LTC Tillman is married to his college sweetheart, the former Chelsea Lucas, and they have three sons (11, 9 and 3).